GOVERNMENT SHOULD TAKE OVER CANAL

DEPLORABLE CONDITION IS LEARNED BY THE ENGINEER

CAPTAIN J. R. SLATTERY FINDS
THE EAST COAST CANAL IN DEPLORABLE CONDITION—MUCH WORK NEEDED.

The new government boat, Captain J. J. Meyler, which stopped here over night about two weeks ago on her way south with Captain J. R.
Slattery, wife and young son on board, touched here again yesterday afternoon on her return to Jacksonville. Captain Slattery, who is U. S. engineer for this district, had been making a trip of inspection over the East Coast canal and intended going through to Miami with the boat but found the canal in such poor condition that this had to be abandoned and the journey to that city completed by rail.

Because of insufficient water and lack of proper staking of the channel the Captain J. J. Meyler was continually aground and Captain Slattery says it would require an immense amount of work to put the canal in good condition for ordinary draft boats. At present it is practically impassable in many places for boats drawing over three feet.

It has been suggested that the government secure control of this section of the canal and make and maintain the necessary improvements and Captain Slattery thinks it must either come to this or the paralleling of the canal by another by the government to complete the inland waterway along the eastern seaboard.
Captain Slattery favors the construction and maintenance by the government of a canal from Fernandina to Miami with a width of 100 feet and a depth of 10 feet and says that with a canal of that capacity innumerable boats would make this southern cruise and there would be a constant procession of pleasure craft during the winter season.

It is said that the board of engineers is considering the matter of the government taking over the present makeshift of a canal but is not very favorably impressed with the project. This impression might be changed, however, Captain Slattery thinks if enough pressure was brought to bear and he suggests that the many commercial bodies along the waterway should take some action concerning the matter and urge the Federal government to assume control for the purpose of "maintaining the canal in a navigable condition."

This suggestion by the United States engineer would seem to be the best solution of the present problem. The chief drainage engineer of the state has just informed the board that he has surveyed the canal from end to end and that he finds it to be in a deplorable condition. He also mentions the fact that the state does not have sufficient funds to make proper repairs and that the canal is practically worthless in its present condition.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS WIDER STREET

PROPOSITION IS TO MAKE BEACH A UNIFORM WIDTH

BOARD OF TRADE AND CITY COUNCIL FAVOR MORE PARK-AGE, PAVING AND SUBSTAN-TIAL SEAWALL.

Widening Beach street to a uniform width of 100 feet from the edge of the curb to the seawall, widening the paving to a uniform width of 50 feet along the business section and installing a substantial seawall the full length of Beach street, is the recommendation which will be made by the joint committees of the board of trade and city council.

This is the result of an examination made recently by the members of the board of trade committee and the special committee of aldermen, and these recommendations will be made as a part of the improvements to be paid for with the proposed bond issue for sewerage and other improvements.

The recommendation will be that Beach street and parkage shall be made a uniform width of 100 feet from South street north to Fairview avenue. In some places the street and parkage are now more than 100 feet wide, and in others the width is considerable less than this. This will require considerable filling in some places, and the proposition is to have a substantial seawall mark the east line of the parkage. The Beach street paving now has an average width of 35 feet, and the recommendation of this joint committee will be to extend the width of the paving to 50 feet along the business section, probably from Cottage avenue to Second avenue.

An effort will be made to obtain estimates on the cost soon.

LOWER RATE FOR PARCEL POST COMING

MAY ALSO EXTEND WEIGHT
LIMIT TO FIFTEEN POUNDS

NEW POSTMASTER GENERAL HAS BEEN GATHERING DATA AND MAY APPEAL TO THE COMMIS-SION.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—A reduction in parcel post rates is believed to be justified by Postmaster General Burleson, who has been gathering data on the cost of the service.
It is believed he will appeal to the interstate commerce commission for permission to reduce the rate for distances under 500 miles. The weight limit may also be extended from 11 to 15 pounds.

A heavy wind squall from the north struck this city yesterday evening just before dark, the flurry lasting several minutes and acting in the interest of the street cleaning force on Beach street, particularly. The wind was followed by a brisk shower, the rainfall amounting to .39 of an inch according to J. G.
Brown's record.

night from New York and has already begun his investigation of conditions in and around Daytona for the purpose of determining the best system of sewerage to be adopted here, approximating the cost and making a recommendation to the city council.

Engineer Potts will be given a free hand in his investigations and physical examinations here and it will probably be some time before he will be ready to make a report to the city council.

250 KILLED 400 INJURED IN STORM

TORNADO THROUGH SOUTHERN STATES LEFT TRAIL OF DEATH

MANY LIVES SNUFFED OUT, SEV-ERAL TOWNS DESTROYED AND PROPERTY DAMAGE IS VERY HEAVY.

NEW ORLEANS, March 22.—As communication is being re-established it is indicated that the death list following the terrific storm of Thursday night and Friday, which swept through the southern states, has reached a total of 250, and more than 400 persons were injured, some of them fatally. Details are still incomplete, but wire communications are being fixed up as rapidly as possible.

Many Lives Snuffed Out—

LOWER PEACHTREE, Ala., March 22.—Forty persons were killed and 70 injured in the storm which practically swept this town off the map Friday morning. At Thomasville 24 persons were killed and 34 injured.
At Decatur there were five killed and nine injured. At Huntsville four persons were killed and seven hurt.
At Dyas three were killed and 20 hurt. At Morrison five were killed and nine hurt. This makes a total of 81 persons killed in Alabama. The town of Dyas was completely wiped off the map. Thousands are homeless, since the storm.

Many Killed in Mississippi—

VICKSBURG, Miss., March 22.—
Many lives were lost in Mississippi in the storm which swept the state Friday morning. Reports received up to this time show that three persons were killed and one hurt at Macon, five are dead and 17 injured at Burnsville, one is dead and ten hurt at Ruleville, and Rienzi reports five dead and 16 injured.

Arkansas Hit Hard—

HELENA, Ark., March 22.—Reports from the storm of Friday show that three persons were killed and 15 injured at Hoxie, and the town was razed; at Black Rock five persons were killed and seven injured;
at Walnut Ridge there is one dead and 11 hurt.

Fatalities in Louisiana—

BATON ROUGE, La., March 22.— Many persons lost their lives in the state of Louisiana in the fierce storm which swept the state Thursday night and Friday morning. Reports received show that two persons were killed and one hurt at Leonard, three were killed and 40 hurt at Saline, one killed and two hurt at Wells, one killed and two hurt at Ida, two killed and one hurt at Burkplace, one killed and four hurt at Stinson. The property damage in the state will be more than $2,000,000.

WAS SOMETHING LIKE A RUN

Munchausen Tells About a Bit of Sprinting He Witnessed in Scotland.

"Talkin' about runnin'," remarked Hon. Ananias Munchausen, "about the finest bit of sprintin' I ever saw was up in Scotland the shootin' season before last. I'd been out all day deer-shootin', and had had most awful luck when I spied a whoppin' great buck about eighteen hundred yards away.
Takin' a careful sight, I let fly. But,
bless your soul, the instant my bullet touched him, and before it had time to penetrate his hide, that beast was off like a flash!

"I never saw two such evenly matched things as that deer and my bullet. For over half a mile they sped on together, neither gainin' on the other, the bullet just managin' to keep in touch with the deer's skin.
At the end of a mile, however, the pace began to tell on the deer, and he faltered just for a moment. 'Twas fatal. The bullet sped on, and the poor beast keeled over. He deserved his freedom if ever an animal did.
He'd have got it, too, if he could have stuck out for another twenty yards, for that's about as far as my rifle carries."

Had No Time.

Miss Specs—"Charles, did you ever allow your mind to pierce the secrets of the universe, to reason that this dull, cold world is but the sepulchre of ages past, that man in all his glory is but the soil we tread, which every breeze wafts in an overshifting maze, to be found and lost in an infinity of particles—the dust of centuries, reunited and dissolved as long as time shall endure?" Charles—"No-o, I can't say I have. You see, I've had to earn my own living."—Stray Stories.

LITTLE CHANCE TO OVEREAT

Kentuckian Visits Grill Room of New York Hotel and Has Hearty Breakfast.

After his brother had been in New York a little more than a year, a Kentuckian decided to pay him a visit.
Hoping to surprise his brother, the Kentuckian did not apprise his brother of his intentions. Arriving at nine o'clock in the morning, he asked to be directed to a good eating house.
The taxicab pilot steered his course for the largest, costliest and most fashionable hotel grillroom on Broadway.

Being a stranger in a strange land and hungry, the Kentuckian brother ordered a regular home meal. When he got the check from the waiter its size staggered him. He wasn't accustomed to New York hotel prices.

After verifying the correctness of his bill at the cashier's desk and being insulted by the waiter for tipping him twenty-five cents, the visitor started out to look for his brother, whose office he found about one o'clock.

In response to his inquiry as to his brother's whereabouts, a clerk said:
"He's over at Blank's hotel's new grillroom."

"Go slow, friend, only a millionaire could overeat at the Blank hotel. I know, because I had breakfast there myself this morning."

Good Cement.

ficient unsweetened gin to fill the bottle. Place it on the back of the stove or in a warm place, immerse in a vessel of hot water until the isinglass is dissolved, and the cement is ready for use.

Asbestos.

Asbestos is a mineral of a fine fibrous character, the fibers being easily separated, elastic, flexible, and of a whitish-gray color. It is composed chiefly of silica, lime, magnesia, and oxide of iron. The ancients converted it into a kind of cloth, in which they wrapped the bodies of their dead, while preparing them for the funeral pile; the cloth being indestructible by fire, enabled them to preserve the ashes. Asbestos is found more abundantly in Corsica than in any other locality.

Find Fossilized Remains.

The fossilized remains of the head of an elephant were recently found by fishermen in a cliff at Bacton, on the Norfolk coast. The lower jaw was missing, but remains of what are supposed to have been tusks were found some time ago.—London Mail.

The Saving Element.

"The party'll go to pieces in this reform wave unless the boys can get a plank in the platform to protect them." "I see. A sort of gangplank." —Baltimore American.

Hundreds of Centuries Old.

What is believed to be the earliest human skull yet found in England has been unearthed in a Sussex gravel pit.
It is judged to belong to the pleistocene period, and to be quite as old as any human remains yet found in Europe. The skull is said to have evidently belonged to an exceedingly primitive type of human being and to have enclosed a brain with marked differences from that of any living race.

Eyeglasses and Steam.

Wearers of eyeglasses are greatly troubled with the steam caused by the heat of the eye. This may be prevented by rubbing the glasses with soap daily. They may be polished bright after application, but an invisible film is retained which will prevent the deposit of moisture.

Enough.

VALUE OF FORESTS PROVED
In Addition to Conserving Rainfall, They Are of Other Aids to Agriculture.

While the rainfall of any region is dependent on dynamic influences in the atmosphere, and can be affected only in a very slight degree, if at all, by the extent of that region covered by forests, it has certainly been shown that woods and forests conserve rainfall. The briefest consideration indicates the likelihood that this must be so, because vegetation and the ground covered with vegetation absorb water and allow it to percolate slowly to the lower levels, whereas on bare ground the rainwater runs quickly away to sea. But trees serve another purpose in aid of agriculture; because, as some recent experiments show, they act as windbreaks and shelters to growing crops. The distance to which the protective influence of trees extends is estimated at twenty times their height, though complete protection, such as might be afforded to growing wheat in a gale, extends only to a distance eight times the height of the trees. Partial protection is about twelve to fourteen times the height. They also check evaporation of rainfall, their influence extending five times their height to windward and eighteen times to leeward, and preserve as much as 70 per cent. of moisture ordinarily lost. Finally, their influence heats both air and soil, increasing the diurnal range of temperature by as much as nine degrees Fahrenheit.

The Rothschilds.
What chiefly struck one at the funeral of the late Baron Gustave de Rothschild was the great multiplicity of relatives descended from his father, the first Baron James, the shrewdest and most funnily humorous member of the Paris branch of the Rothschilds, that he founded. Among these descendants were a son, grandsons, and great and great-grandsons—Rothschilds, Lamberts, Leonides, Ephrussi, Sterns, Sassoons, Gubbays. They represented not only the principle of blood relationship, but the finance of Paris, Brussels, Genoa, Milan, Odessa, Bombay and Calcutta. Among the numerous multi-millionaires descended from the first Baron James there was one who devoted himself to medical science, dramatic literature and the collection of autographs of great writers—Baron Henri, only son of the second Baron James.

How to Remove Mildew.
To remove mildew from linen take some yellow soap and rub it well into the linen, then scrape some chalk very fine and rub that in also. Lay the linen on the grass and as it dries wet it again and again until the mildew disappears. Another way is to mix soft soap and powdered starch with half the quantity of salt and the juice of a lemon. Apply the mixture with a brush and lay the linen out on the grass for a few frosty nights until the stain disappears.

Not a Man's World.
This is not rightly a man's world. Great men are but dreams of women become militant. Women are the real inspirers of men; they ignite his every conception. Never yet has man sung, painted, prophesied nor in any way woven tighter the spirit of his time, but that his mother was first great enough to attract the gift; and more often than not, upon his maturity, the potential gift was startled into its supreme expression by another mother's daughter.—Will Levinton Comfort

Self-Knowledge.
Suffer me to recommend to you one of the most useful lessons of life, the knowledge and study of yourself. There you run the greatest hazard of being deceived. Self-love and partiality cast a mist before the eyes, and there is no knowledge so hard to be acquired, nor of more benefit when once thoroughly understood.—Abigail Adams to Her Son.

Wasted Example.
An old lady, leaving church after a service which had been attended by a crowded congregation, was heard to say: "If everybody else would only do as I do, and stay quietly in their seats till every one else has gone out, there would not be such a crush at the doors!"—Allwaukee Sentinel.

Exercise.
There may be courtesy, there may be even temper and wit and talent and sparkling conversation, there may be good will, even, and yet the humanest and divinest faculties pine for exercise.—Thoreau.

Free Country.
This is such a free country that everyone has a right to disbelieve what any prominent scientist says.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

All About the Frog.
"The frog is a very queer-looking animal which lives on land and in water. If we notice we will find that tadpoles develop into frogs. They first have a tail and no feet and legs; then it loses its tail and two pairs of feet and legs grow on it; and it comes from the water and lives chiefly on land."—From a Schoolboy's Essay.

SAYS CANAL
IS NOT RIGHT

ALSO DECLARES FUNDS ARE INADEQUATE FOR REPAIRS

DEEDS TO LANDS DELIVERED

WHILE CANAL WAS IMPASSA-BLE IN MANY PLACES AND PEOPLE ARE DISGUSTED.

More light is being thrown upon the transactions which resulted in the deeding of the last 117,000 acres of land to the constructing company before the work of digging the East Coast canal was completed; but $75-000 was reserved when the deeds were delivered to complete the canal, and already Acting Chief Drainage Engineer F. C. Elliott has made a survey and report upon the canal in which he says there is not money enough on hand to repair the canal, let alone complete it.

Some 20 years ago the state contracted with the Florida East Coast to dig a navigable canal from Jacksonville to Miami for the consideration of about 800,000 acres of land. This land was deeded to the company in large blocks from time to time.

On February 5, of this year, the chief drainage engineer made a report to the Trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund in which he declared that the canal route had not been properly selected, that it had not been properly dug and that it would have to be reconstructed if the state was to get any good from it.

Engineer Elliott declares that when the canal was laid out some 20 years ago it was planned to construct the same along the easiest route without paying any attention to the tides, the crossing of rivers or anything, and that much of the canal which had been dug had been filled up with silt.
He also states that the sand was dredged out of the canal route and dumped on the banks, which banks were under the water. This sand was washed back into the canal at once and has rendered the canal un-navigable in many places.

The engineer declares that to put the canal in proper shape it would be necessary to re-dig it for several miles. He states in his official report that the company constructed the canal along the route where the least work was necessary. He also states that the funds available for the work is barely sufficient to remove some of the largest shoals and not to redig the canal as it should be.

Capt. George Gleason, one of the best posted men in the state upon the affairs of the East Coast canal, declares that it will require at least $150,000 to restore the canal to its proper condition. He was formerly an officer in the company which constructed the canal, and says that the company received its pay for the work before the work was completed.
He also declares that the state will have to complete the work of construction at its own expense.

December 1, 1906, a contract was entered into between the Internal Improvement board and the company, which provided that the deeds for the last 117,000 acres of land should be held in escrow until the work was completed, but the trustees delivered these deeds last December to the company, reserving but $75,000 to complete the canal, make repairs and maintain the big ditch.

In the March issue of Motor Boating, Bradford Burnham describes a trip down the canal in his motor boat.
Speaking of things to be seen enroute Mr. Burnham says:

"We guarantee the aforesaid scientists a full and complete opportunity for determining the ingredients and composition of the bottoms of every river, lake, bay, lagoon and canal that lies between Jacksonville and Miami, while the dredging gentlemen will be filled with awe and admiration as he watches the wise old captain of the passenger boat calmly turn around when reaching a spot where the bottom almost peeks up through the top, and with propeller whirling busily in advance like a rotary snow plow, dig his way through the vast depths of mid-channel—four feet.

"What puzzled us most as we shored off our 21st bar was why so man pleasure craft of all kinds should endure this harrowing, burrowing ordeal twice annually year after year and not give it up in disgust and go elsewhere or nowhere through the water."

THE SARACINA BAND FUND

The first Sunday concert of the season by the Saracina Royal Italian band will be given at the kiosk on South Beach street tomorrow afternoon and another concert will be given by the band Sunday afternoon, March 30.

The band fund is still more than $1,000 short and there is but one week left in which to make up this amount.

Hand your contributions to Mr.
Burgoyne, Mr. Waite, Mr. Rowe, or leave them at the Daily News office.

WEATHER MAN RESIGNS

WILSON TO FILL PLACE.

WASHINGTON, March 22 — The resignation of Willis Moore, chief of the weather bureau, will be accepted shortly. The place will be given to a prominent democrat now being considered by President Wilson.

INTERESTING RIDES AND DRIVES
POINTS WORTH VISITING

OCEAN BEACH—excellent bathing north for 10 miles and south 15 miles to Mosquito inlet and the Government lighthouse at Ponce Park. The beach is the most magnificent in the world.

BEED, KNOX & BEED ORANGE GROVE—18 miles, via Ormond, is one of the largest groves in Volusia county and is well worth seeing; can be reached by motor over fairly good road; can also be reached by boat.

NUMBER NINE ORANGE GROVE—a large grove, passed on the way to the Beed, Knox & Beed grove, is 12 miles from Daytona.

NEW SMYRNA—16 miles from Daytona, over an excellent hard surface road; this drive is said to be the prettiest in the state. At New Smyrna are the ruins of an ancient fort and other historical spots, left by the colony of Andrew Turnbull.

OLD SPANISH MISSION—2 miles west of New Smyrna, reached by motor over good road. This mission is without authentic history but by many it is contended that this is the church built by Columbus on his second voyage to America. The altar is still extant, but at a later date the building was used as a sugar mill.

SPANISH SUGAR MILL—2 miles west of Port Orange and about 8 miles from Daytona; the machinery is still in a good state of preservation, although the mill is presumed to have been built and operated by the early Spanish settlers.

DELAND—25 miles from Daytona;
the county seat of Volusia county and seat of John B. Stetson university; a very picturesque city;
reached by motor over hard surface road.

GOVERNMENT LIGHTHOUSE—a Ponce Park, 12 miles from Daytona is reached by boat or by motor on the ocean beach.

TOBAGO RIVER—The Tobago river of Florida, reached by motor from Daytona, is a beautiful spot, which leaves Daytona and runs to the northward for the stream, 25 miles from city. Generally a number of boats may be seen in the river. This is a fine tourist spot.

DELEON SPRING, 28 miles from Daytona; mammoth spring throws out thousands of gallons of water a minute; a delicious bathing pool, and pleasant scenery. Spring is situated in an old plantation. Reached by motor over good road; a nice trip for a picnic party.

OAK HILL—hamlet, 10 miles south of New Smyrna; several orange groves in the locality; reached by motor over hard-surfaced road.

ORMOND—six miles from Daytona;
here is located the Ormond hotel and a pretty town; nearby are the ruins of Spanish sugar mills.

TURTLE MOUND—26 miles south of Daytona; reached by boat; a mammoth mound of oyster shells supposed to have been left by a prehistoric race of people. Fossils and other antiquities have been discovered in excavating the shell.

PORT ORANGE—an attractive town 6 miles south of Daytona, can be reached by motor over hard surface road; or the trip one way may be made by the road and crossing the Halifax river on the Port Orange bridge, the return can be made on the ocean beach.

CLARENDON GOLF LINKS—2 miles from Daytona and immediately north of the Hotel Clarendon at Seabreeze; the links are now in good condition. The Hotel Clarendon bears the distinction of being the only fireproof winter tourist hotel in the world.

WILL BE THE WORLD'S BIGGEST BATTLESHIP

This is the navy department's official sketch of the battleship Pennsylvania, which will be larger than any other warship ever built by any nation. Its tonnage will be 31,000, its length 600 feet and its beam 97 feet, which is almost the limit for safe passage through the Panama canal locks. The total cost of the Pennsylvania ready for service will be about $14,000,000.

EVERGLADES TO BE HELD BY STATE
REMAINING LANDS NOT TO BE SOLD TO DUTCH SYNDICATE TRUSTEES ALERT AND PROPOSITION TO TAKE MILLION ACRES IN RETURN FOR MONEY SPENT FALLS THROUGH.

The state's remaining holdings of one million acres of the most valuable of the Everglades lands will not be sold to any syndicate for the paltry sum of $8 per acre.

The great Dutch syndicate that had the nerve to make the tentative offer of taking over these lands and paying the state in bonds and mortgages to be floated and laid on the state's own lands, has seen the trend of sentiment and has failed to make an appearance and submit its final proposition.

To the trustees of the state having the matter in charge and to Governor Park Trammell, for the fearless exposure he gave the proposition, to the people of the state, are due the saving of this vast source of future wealth to Florida.

A most significant fact concerning the failure of the proposition is that when the immigration bill, which was vetoed by President Taft, and which all the people of the country wanted, was sent back to the lower house for passage, if possible, over the president's veto, the interests having at heart the consummation of this Dutch Everglades deal, opposed so strenuously the passage of the bill that it was defeated. The main point why the opposition was so strong was that it was desired to exempt from the act that clause requiring of immigrants ability to read or speak the English language, that these proposed Dutch settlers might come in large numbers irrespective of any acquaintance with the language of this country.

Now, after all has been done to make easy the getting in of the proposed settlers, that the corporation or syndicate, might get these lands, the Dutch syndicate itself, seeing there will be no chance of getting the lands on the terms proposed by them fall to come up at the meeting at Tallahassee, and the whole thing falls through.

Former Governor Jennings, when he was asked concerning the deal, said that so far as he knew, there had never been any serious consideration of the Dutch syndicate's informal proposition. He intimated that the plan was so palpably for the advantage of the syndicate that it could not be considered by any business man.

Gov. Park Trammell, some weeks ago exposed the deal by showing that in its last analysis the state would get absolutely nothing from the lands except what it had already spent in draining the Everglades, and that the bonds of the company issued on the holdings of the corporation. The story created great consternation at the time, as from former statements it appeared that Florida would get a large sum of money for the schools, and the rest, amounting to some six million dollars in interest-paying securities.

Evidently the Dutch syndicate has seen the fall coming to it, and has decided not to make a showing, at least along the lines indicated by them in their first proposition. Whether or not they will come back with a real proposition to take these valuable lands and pay some real money for them, remains to be seen.

MILDRED AND ROUCLERE DELIGHT PEOPLE HERE.

Mildred and Rouclere, who are giving a three nights presentation of Princess Iris at the New Daytona theater, delighted another audience last night, the size of the audience being cut down by the heavy rain which fell just at the time the show was to begin. All who have seen the presentation are loud in their praise of the show. The last presentation will be tonight, the final opportunity for the people here to see this marvelous and fascinating performance, which is presented in a comedy vein, and has a combination of the subtle mysticism of the Orient with the progress of the magical science of the Occident.

Crude art has been reduced by them to exact science, but there is no effort to impress their audience with heavy scientific teachings, but rather to give them an evening of delightful surprises. The play abounds with novel scenic and electrical effects, pleasing specialties and bewildering illusions all blended together to give three hours of merriment. It is a series of long, loud laughs.

The company comprises many artists and the entire production has been selected with a liberal and careful hand.

When Baby Learns to Talk.

Some children are very late in talking, particularly if they are not encouraged. They make signs or point to the object of their desires, and find it easier than learning to talk. This is pure indolence on their part and incidentally on the part of the mother. Adenoids are a frequent cause of delayed talking. If a child does not talk at two or two and a half years of age, deafness or mental deficiency should at least be considered as a possible cause of his backwardness.

More Caution Needed.

An exchange tells the story of a little boy whose mother decided that he was old enough to do without her sitting by him when he was put to bed until he fell asleep. So when one night she kissed the five-year-old and told him he was a big boy and brave enough to go to sleep without his mamma and in the dark, too, he pondered the situation a moment and then said: "Well, wait a minute. I've got to say my prayers again carefuler."—Suburban Life.

By Refracted Light.

"When is a person militant?" asks the inquisitive subscriber of Wharton. The Denver pastor who was thrown out of his church window by his board of deacons and came back and licked the entire push was militant.—Huston Post.

Compressed Flour.

Experiments in compressing flour show that its keeping qualities are prolonged almost indefinitely by the process. Its bulk decreases by one-third.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

SUGGESTS STREET CURBINGS.

Editor Daily News:

The condition of the residence streets and avenues in many places in Daytona suggest the need of a curbing ordinance for protection of parkage and in further beautifying our driveways.

The expense of such an improvement being merely nominal would injure no one financially. Let the city engineer establish a uniform and ample width for all of the 100 foot avenues and the same for streets of lesser width and have the ordinance enacted promptly as possible.

Such improvement would be an incentive for many property owners to keep their parkages in order, where it is now driven over and otherwise cut up and unsightly. Abutting property values would be considerably enhanced and now pretty avenues become much more so.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE AT M. E. CHURCH PARSONAGE.

Miss Susie Wehner and Joseph Delos Graton were united in marriage yesterday evening at about 8 o'clock in the First M. E. church parsonage, Rev. D. H. Rutter, pastor of the church performing the ceremony. The bride is a Daytona girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Wehner, of South Ridgewood avenue, and the groom is from Ashfield, Mass., but has been coming to Daytona for several seasons and is now in the employ of E. L. Shears at the Daytona Steam laundry. The young couple, who have the best wishes of friends here for their future happiness and prosperity, will leave for Ashfield in about two weeks time, but expect to return to Daytona next winter.

Simplify the Problem of Living.

I do believe in simplicity. It is astonishing as well as sad, how many trivial affairs even the wisest man thinks he must attend to in a day; how singular an affair he thinks he must omit. When the mathematician would solve a difficult problem, he first frees the equation of all incubrances, and reduces it to its simplest terms. So simplify the problem of life, distinguish the necessary and the real—Thoreau "Letters."

National Spirit is Aroused.

The world, this country, is gradually waking up to a realization of how ineffably ugly our cities are, how forlorn are the houses and the lives of people outside of the cities. They are beginning to demand something better. No, the spirit of art is not dying. It is preparing for a mighty revival compared to which the boasted Renaissance will be like a rush light in the full blaze of day.

Absent-Minded Statesman.

Lord Lawrence, who was once governor general of India, was so absent minded in matters of external display that when the Koh-i-noor diamond, now among the crown jewels, came into his hands for transmission to Queen Victoria after the annexation of the Punjab in 1849, he kept it for six weeks in his waistcoat pocket, having forgotten all about it and only discovered it there by accident.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY TO HOLD MEETING AT DeLAND

PREPARATIONS MADE TO ENTERTAIN LARGE NUMBER OF DELEGATES AT ANNUAL SESSION APRIL 29 TO MAY 1.

JACKSONVILLE, March 22 — At the executive meeting of the Florida State Horticultural society, which was held in this city recently, the date for the opening of the next meeting of the society was set for April 29, the opening session being on the evening of that day and continuing through Wednesday, Thursday and the forenoon of Friday. The place of meeting will be DeLand, Volusia county.

An interesting program is being prepared by the committee in charge and it is expected that some prominent horticulturists from Washington will be present to deliver addresses. As soon as the program committee has arranged the details an advance program will be published. It frequently happens, however, that some of the best things for the program are not secured until the very last moment.

Everybody has heard of DeLand, but everybody has not seen it and there will be a splendid opportunity for a good many members of the horticultural society to see this Athens of Florida and at the same time enjoy the horticultural meeting. DeLand is the seat of the John B. Stetson university, which is one of the finest universities in the south.

It is understood that the entertainment committee of DeLand is already preparing to take care of the visitors in DeLand's usual hospitable manner, and will be able to furnish all the entertainment the members can take in and interfere with the program of the meeting.

Every orange grower and vegetable raiser in Florida and those interested in the development of the state should become a member of the Florida State Horticultural society. A copy of its proceedings is worth many times the annual dues of $1. The society has been in existence for a quarter of a century and now stands foremost among the agricultural societies of the world. Its reports are sought from all quarters of the globe, and are on file in many of the best libraries in the United States.

During the past year more applications have been received for copies of the report than the secretary was able to supply, which shows the growth and increased interest in the society.

Making All Happy.

"What I deem an appropriate present is a book, and that I must choose for myself," writes a correspondent of the London Chronicle. "To leave the selection to friends would be a catastrophe. Every year, therefore, on behalf of those generously minded individuals who have kindly thoughts toward me, I buy books for myself, tell them, and get the money refunded. And in the measure of monetary value they remember me, I likewise remember them—in any article of their own choosing. And we are all happy."

COLORED MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO GRAND LARCENY CHARGE

DEPUTY SHERIFF MILTON ARRESTS BLACK MAN WANTED FOR ESCAPE FROM CAMP ON WEST COAST.

Pleading guilty to a charge of stealing a suitcase filled with clothes, valued at $35, Willie Watts, colored, was bound over to the criminal court yesterday afternoon by Justice Zuber. The clothes were taken from another negro, Wes Johnson, in Midway and Johnson found where some of the clothes had been sold by Watts.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Milton yesterday afternoon placed under arrest a negro by the name of Hillard Carruthers, wanted for an escape from a convict camp near Plant City in Hillsborough county. The black man had been sent to the camp for six months on a charge of stealing a suit of clothes and had served two months of his time when he made his escape. He has been in Daytona since about Christmas time and had been going under several names and employed at a number of places in the city. He was acting as chauffeur for Dr. C. C. Bohannon when arrested.

TAX VALUATION IS $1,800,000; MILLAGE IS PLACED AT 16

CITY COUNCIL COMPLETES THE WORK OF REVISING TAX ASSESSOR'S BOOKS AND TURNS BOOKS BACK.

Completing the work of revising and equalizing the city tax books and footing up the total taxable valuation at something over $1,800,000, the city council has placed the millage at 16 and turned the books back to the tax assessor.

This total, which is based on a 40 per cent valuation, is about $100,000 higher than last year and the millage is the same as last year. The city council has been holding a number of adjourned meetings to complete the work of revising the tax books.

Map in the Nursery.

I have discovered that a large map of the United States hanging in the nursery, or where the children can see it, is a great educator. A map of your own state also, showing counties, townships, capitals, etc., will also help all the family to know more practical geography than may be studied in books. It is a good idea to consult both maps frequently with the children, to look up any strange towns read about in the paper. It teaches them to know their own country, state, city, etc.—Harper's Bazar.

Push Cart Fortune.

The proprietor of the finest cafe in Los Angeles formerly sold "hot tamales" from a push cart, and although he is now wealthy, he still preserves this old vehicle. In erecting a business block to house his modern restaurant he built a cupola just large enough to contain the old tamale cart, and it may be plainly seen from the street.

STATE HAPPENINGS

News from Various Florida Cities Briefly Told

The largest mackerel catch of the season was carried into Fort Pierce a few days ago, when more than 60,000 pounds were delivered to the wholesale houses.

A magnificent new power plant for St. Petersburg Light and Power company will be erected in that city this summer at an expenditure of something between $125,000 and $150,000.

The Lake Butler Times says: "G. A. Apperson has on display in the Times office a strawberry 7 1/4 inches in circumference and 2 1/4 inches in length. It is a healthy, juicy berry of the most salable type."

The Florida State Horticulture society will meet in DeLand on the 29th of April for a three days session. It is expected that some prominent horticulturists from Washington will be present to deliver addresses on this occasion.

The condition of Henry M. Flagler, who injured his hip in a fall at his home in Palm Beach over two weeks ago, remains unchanged except that he shows weariness from the confinement to his bed, which has been continuous.

Through the efforts of the Gainesville board of trade the 1913 state conference of county superintendents county boards of instruction and principals of Florida high schools has been named to take place in Gainesville, March 28-29.

Edwin H. Stubbs, of Philadelphia, yesterday landed eight splendid bonefish and several large jackfish in three hours' time under the guidance of Capt. Jones of the Oka San. So

CANARY IS PLUMP AND HAPPY

Absent-Minded Woman Discovers Why She Wanted Telephone Operator to Call Her.

Absent-minded persons sorely try the patience of girls in the New Rochelle telephone office. Not long ago a woman confessed herself subject to extreme forgetfulness and requested the day operator on her exchange to ring her up every morning at nine o'clock. A week later she said:

"Central, what was it I wanted you to call me for at nine o'clock?"

"I don't know," said the girl. "You didn't tell me. You just asked me to call at nine o'clock."

"Too bad," said the woman. "I know there was something I wanted to do every morning at nine o'clock, but I can't for the life of me think what it was."

The nine o'clock calls continued, however, and several days later the woman took central into her confidence again.

"I have found out why I wanted to be called," she said. "A friend had given me a canary and I wanted to make sure of remembering to feed it. The poor little thing is nearly starved. Hereafter when you ring won't you just say, 'Feed the bird,' and I'll go straight and do it."

Central promised, and the neglected canary is now a plump and contented bird.

Poor Combination.
Small ideas and big words make a painful combination.—New Orleans Picayune.

As far as known this is the record for three hours' fishing for bonefish.—Miami Herald.

For the first time in a long number of years shrimp are now being taken from Pensacola bay in large quantities. They are said to be more numerous and much larger than any previously caught or shipped there from other points. Some of them measure five inches in length.

Work on the new railroad from Gardner to Crewsville is said to be progressing nicely. Good, heavy steel rails are being used for this work with the expectation of making it a permanent line, instead of a mere tramway for the convenience of the lumber and turpentine interests.

Key West will entertain a distinguished party, March 24, when the government steamer Mayflower and Slyph arrive from Cristobal with the house committee on naval affairs. The official guests will look over the Key West naval station and determine what changes and improvements are necessary, if any, to make it a secondary naval base to Guantanamo, Cuba.

Considerable rivalry is exhibited among our anglers, the locality of their homes entering largely into the contest. This week the championship has gone to A. H. Algar of West Bridgewater, Mass. On Tuesday he landed a 33 1/2 pound bass at the mouth of the Banana river, and is now the acknowledged champion.—Eau Gallie Record.

Replying to a letter from Capt. T. Hall, of the launch Frances, suggesting that the board have signs erected along the drainage canals warning people against shooting the birds and gators along these waterways, Gov. Park Trammell has advised that he will refer the matter to the trustees of the I. I. Fund for their consideration. It is felt here that such action by the board is of the utmost importance, as tourists are rapidly depleting the Everglades of one of the chief attractions, by ruthlessly and indiscriminately shooting the birds and alligators, simply for the pleasure of killing.

A Fernandina resident who has been carefully watching the new bluefish industry which was started about January 1, says that official records show that shipments north alone of bluefish up to date will aggregate 1,200,000 pounds, making a money value in Fernandina of at least $100,000, and $50,000 in the northern markets, and the season is not yet closed. At present there are eleven good sized fishing smacks and numerous small power boats engaged in this industry, some of the latter bringing as high as 1,500 pounds in one day's catch; all the fish, too, being caught with hook and line. Next season it is believed that the big smacks will be increased to about 70 in number and the small boats to about 300. Fishermen from the north on the smacks declare this season's catch off Fernandina is the largest ever known for the given time and the fish are more easily secured than anywhere else. This gives one an idea what this blue fishing business means to Fernandina.

*A buffet luncheon and sale will be given by the ladies of St. Mary's guild on Easter Monday, from 3 to 6 p. m., in the Guild Hall, Orange avenue.

FINE OLD BORROWERS.

Leigh Hunt Was a Champion, and Dr. Johnson Lived on Books.

In a book of essays, "Americans and Others," Ames Reppeler collects some notable instances of a certain condescension in borrowers. Leigh Hunt and William Godwin had the trait developed to magnificent proportions:

"It would be interesting to calculate the amount of money which Hunt's friends and acquaintances contributed to his support in life. Shelley gave him at one time $1,400, an amount which the poet could ill spare, and when he had no more to give wrote in misery of spirit to Byron, begging a loan for his friend and promising to repay it, as he felt tolerably sure Hunt never would. Byron, generous at first, wearied after a time of his position in Hunt's commissariat (it was like pulling a man out of a river, he wrote to Moore, only to see him jump in again) and coldly withdrew. His withdrawal occasioned inconvenience and has been sharply criticised."

As for Godwin, when his daughter ran off with Shelley he refused to take Shelley's check for $1,000 if it were not made payable to a third person or "unless he could have the money without the formality of an acceptance."

Crabb Robinson introduced him one evening to a gentleman named Rough. The next day both Godwin and Rough called upon their host, each man expressing his regard for the other and each asking Robinson if he thought the other would be a likely person to lend him $50.

Dr. Johnson was more scrupulous. He "paid back $10 after a lapse of twenty years * * * and on his deathbed begged Sir Joshua Reynolds to forgive him a trifling loan." But in the matter of borrowed books the case was altered. "Johnson cherished a dim conviction that because he read and Garrick did not the proper place for Garrick's books was on his—Johnson's—bookshelves, a point which could never be settled between the two friends and which came near wrecking their friendship."

Alaska's Two Climates.
Official reports indicate that the coast region of Alaska has much rain and snow, but an equable temperature, and that the winter at Sitka is no colder than at Washington. The snowfall at Valdez has reached sixty feet and the rainfall at Sitka 111 inches in a season. The Yukon basin, on the other hand, has a continental climate, very cold in the winter, although the summer temperature may reach 90 degrees F. in the shade. The rainfall is small. The soil is permanently frozen for several yards below the surface, but a thin surface layer thaws out every summer.—Harper's.

Matter and Force Identical.
Until recently the atom was considered the indivisible part of matter, but advances in radio-activity point to the fact that the atom is a complex system, consisting of a positively charged nucleus around which are grouped numerous negatively charged particles of infinitesimal dimensions, called electrons. A great deal has yet to be learned about the electron. Though regarded now as the unit of the material universe, it is really nothing but electricity, though it possesses the properties of matter—mass, momentum, kinetic energy and probably weight.—Christian Herald.

Beggars' Day in Costa Rica.
In Costa Rica the beggars are privileged characters on Tuesday—that is, they are allowed that day of the week in which to beg from shop to shop. It is the custom for business houses to prepare for the weekly visit of the mendicants and to hand over to them small coins or articles of little value. In some instances where merchandise is given away the beggars peddle it about the poorer quarters and so earn a few cents apiece.—Argonaut.

Simple Locomotion.
"I was just thinking," said one weary tramp to another, with a long, long journey in front of them, "about bad roads and the wonders of science. This earth is spinning round faster'n a railway train behind time."

"Well, we ain't fell off yet."

"No, but think o' what a convenience it would be if we could have some place to grab on to while the territory slid under our feet until the place we wanted to go to came along!"

The Turkish Fex.
The Turk's devotion to the fex is clearly explained by Duckett Ferriman: "The prejudice against the hat rests on a religious basis. If the ramaz (form of prayer) is rightly performed the forehead must touch the ground. The brim of a hat or the peak of a cap would prevent this."—London Globe.

A Beautiful Sight.
"There is no such thing as true friendship."

"Oh, yes, there is. Did you never remark the implicit trust and confidence existing between two girls who have known each other for about a week?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Intellect.
Knicker—Is Jones smart enough to set the river afire? Bocker—No, but he is smart enough not to get up to build the fire himself.—New York Sun.

Grim Humor.
Hokus—I will tell you, an operation for appendicitis is no joke. Pokus—No, but if it were it would be a sidesplitting one.—Life.

When men are friends there is no need of justice, but when they are just they still need friendship.—Aristotle.

DONNELLY REACHES CAPITAL WITH THE McLEAN HORSES

SHOW HORSES WHICH WERE
CENTLY SOLD BY HARRIMAN TO WASHINGTON MAN.

NEW YORK, March 22 — The sale by Job. W. Harriman to Edward B. McLean of Washington, for $50,000 of the three high stepping harness horses, Nala, Lady Dilham and Elegant Dilham, winners of scores of blue ribbons, championship prizes and challenge cups at the leading American horse shows, has been announced here.

Nala is a trotting bred stallion. He has won the championship of the national horse show four times making a record never equalled in this country. Lady Dilham and Elegant Dilham are hackney, sister and brother. The former has twice won the championship at the national horse show.

The price paid for the trio is the highest on record. They were wintered in Florida. They will probably be exhibited at the national capital horse show in May.

Horses Reach Capital—

WASHINGTON, March 22 — The
string of horses recently sold by Mr.
Harriman to Mr. McLean arrived here from Daytona, Fla., today in charge of J. H. Donnelly, who has been looking after the animals during the winter.
